Dear Mr. Evers:

This is in response to your August 30, 2017 Freedom of Information Act request, received by the Civil Rights Division on September 6, 2017, seeking access to communications relating to consideration of race in postsecondary education admissions between specific Department of Justice officials and Eric Dreiband or anyone using an @jonesday.com email address.

After a thorough search, I have determined that the Civil Rights Division has no records pertaining to any of the documents/records that you have requested.

If you are not satisfied with my response to this request, you may administratively appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIAonline portal by creating an account on the following web site: <https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within 90 days of the date of my response to your request. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

I hope the Civil Rights Division has been of some assistance to you in this matter.

Sincerely,

Tink Cooper

Tink Cooper, Acting Chief
